Market Summary

The Reno/Sparks Association of REALTORS® (RSAR) released its June 2019 report on existing home sales in Reno and Sparks, including median sales price and number of home sales in the region. RSAR obtains its information from the Northern Nevada Regional Multiple Listing Service (www.nnrmls.com).

During June 2019, the report showed Reno-Sparks had 555 sales of existing single-family homes; a decrease of 8 percent from June 2018 and an 18 percent decrease from one month ago, May 2019. The report listed the median sales price for an existing single-family residence in Reno-Sparks in May 2019 at $400,000; a 5 percent increase from June 2018 and a 3 percent increase from May 2019. All sales numbers are for existing “stick built single-family dwellings” only and do not include condominium, townhome, manufactured, modular or newly constructed homes. The median sales price of existing condominium/townhomes in Reno-Sparks in June 2019 was $242,000; a 13 percent increase from a year ago.

In May 2019, Reno (including North Valleys) had 403 sales of existing single-family homes; a decrease of 7 percent from last year and a 12 percent decrease from the previous month. The median sales price in Reno for an existing single-family residence in June 2019 was $411,500; a 3 percent increase from June 2018, and a 2.5 percent decrease from May 2019. All sales numbers are for existing “stick built single-family dwellings” only and do not include condominium, townhome, manufactured, modular or newly constructed homes. The existing condominium/townhome median sales price for June 2019 in Reno was $260,000; a 5 percent increase from last year.

Sparks (including Spanish Springs) experienced 152 sales of existing single-family homes in June 2019; an 11 percent decrease from June 2018 and a 6 percent increase from May 2019. The Sparks median sales price for an existing single-family residence in June 2019 was $374,500; a 3 percent increase from June 2018 and a 6.5 percent increase from May 2019. All sales numbers are for existing “stick built single-family dwellings” only and do not include condominium, townhome, manufactured, modular or newly constructed homes. The existing condominium/townhome median sales price for June 2019 in Sparks was $204,000; a 3 percent decrease from last year.

“June was still a seller’s market with 2.4 months supply of inventory and the Reno/Sparks median price setting at $400,000,” said Angelica Reyes, 2019 RSAR president and REALTOR with The Right Choice Realty. “As we look deeper at the market, we still see a lot of inventory that is well under the $400,000, which is encouraging for first time homeowners or those who are looking to downsize.”

Glossary

Active Inventory Units is the number of Active properties available for sale at the end of the month, based on the List Date, Contract Date and Sold Date. This may change over time as properties fall out of contract.

Days to Contract is the Average number of days between when a property is listed and the contract date when an offer is accepted.

Median Sold Price is the mid-point where the price for half of the sales are higher and half are lower. Median is preferred to average as it better accounts for outliers at the high or low end of the price range.

Months Supply of Inventory (MSI), also known as Absorption Rate, is the number of months it would take to sell through the units available for sale at the current monthly sales rate. The National Association of REALTORS® describes a balanced market as between 5 and 7 months supply of inventory (MSI).

New Contracts is the number of properties newly under contract in a given month or time period.

New Listings is the number of properties listed in a given month or time period.

Percent of Ask Price Received is the average of the Sales Price divided by the most recent Ask Price, and expressed as a percentage.

Units Sold is the number of properties which actually Sold within a given month or time period.
